The priest extends his hands over the penitent's head, or at least his right hand, and proclaims absolution in the following words:

God the Father of mercies,
 through the death and resurrection of his Son
 has reconciled the world to himself and sent the Holy Spirit among us for the forgiveness of sins;
 through the ministry of the church
 may God give you pardon and peace,
 and I absolve you from your sins,
 in the name of the Father, and of the Son,
 and of the Holy Spirit.

The Introduction to the rite makes this comment:

This form of absolution indicates that the reconciliation of the penitent comes from the mercy of the Father; it shows the connection between the reconciliation of the sinner and the paschal mystery of Christ; it stresses the role of the Holy Spirit in the forgiveness of sins; finally it underlines the ecclesial aspect of the sacrament because reconciliation with God is asked for and given through the ministry of the church.

The Rite of Penance # 19

The celebration of the sacrament ends with proclamation of praise and thanksgiving, and a dismissal such as "The Lord has freed you from your sins. Go in peace."

Rite 1: For Reconciliation of an Individual

Parishes have one or more reconciliation rooms or chapels, which provide an appropriate environment for this rite, and are arranged to offer a choice of facing the priest or remaining anonymous.

Both priest and penitent are encouraged to prepare for the celebration of the liturgy by prayer and the reading of the scripture. After the greeting, the word of God may be introduced by the priest or the penitent.

After the penitent's confession, the priest may offer some comments to help the person make the changes needed to turn away from sin and follow Christ more faithfully. But the sacrament of reconciliation is not for extended counselling. If it seems necessary, the priest may encourage the penitent to follow up the sacramental celebration with some counselling at another time.

The prayer of contrition is followed by an acceptance of the penance given by the priest. Absolution is then given using the words and gesture mentioned above.

A proclamation of praise and thanksgiving is followed by a simple dismissal.
