Liturgical Music Project Coordinator

The National Liturgy Office is delighted to announce the appointment of Judith Courtney, from St Mary's Parish, Papakura, Auckland, as Liturgical Music Project Coordinator. Judith has strong background in education, liturgy, and liturgical music ministry. One of Judith's major roles is to reactivate and Chair the work of the National Network of Liturgical Musicians. This committee will help progress the requirement of the New Zealand Directory of Liturgical Music to publish an approved repertoire of liturgical music for use in parishes.

Liturgical Music Seminars – Catholic Worship Book II

Dr Paul Taylor, MA (Liturgy) (Notre Dame, USA) MMus (ACU) PhD (ACU), has been invited by the Commission for Liturgy to present Liturgical Music Seminars from 1 – 6 July for all those who contribute to music ministry in parishes and schools in the Diocese of Auckland. He will also be introducing the Catholic Worship Book II, the recently released hymnal from Australia. Visitors from elsewhere very welcome. For more information or to register contact Teresa Wackrow at teresaw@cda.org.nz.
