

Let us pray together that God's compassion and justice will break forth in our world.

1. We pray for all women, men and children trapped in bonded labour all around the world.

Response: E Te Ariki, whakarongo mai ra ki a matou

2. We pray for all adults and children who are trafficked and endure the loss of dignity and freedom. RESPONSE

3. We pray for world leaders that they will courageously confront human trafficking in all its forms. RESPONSE

4. We pray that all faith communities will grow in the appreciation of the dignity of every person and work for the elimination of human trafficking. RESPONSE

5. We pray that we will have the courage and energy to work towards the eradication of labour exploitation and human trafficking, especially in our own country. RESPONSE

