I will sing a song about my friend's vineyard that was on the side of a fertile hill. My friend dug the ground, removed the stones, and planted the best vines. He built a watchtower and dug a pit in rocky ground for pressing the grapes. He hoped they would be sweet, but bitter grapes were all it produced. Listen people of Jerusalem and of Judah! You be the judge of me and my vineyard. What more could I have done for my vineyard? I hoped for sweet grapes, but bitter grapes were all that grew. Now I will tell you what I am going to do. I will cut down the hedge and tear down the wall. My vineyard will be trampled and left in ruins. It will turn into a desert, neither pruned nor hoed; it will be covered with thorns and briars. I will command the clouds not to send rain. I am the LORD All-Powerful! Israel is the vineyard, and Judah is the garden I tended with care. I had hoped for honesty and for justice, but dishonesty and cries for mercy were all I found. Ko te kupu a te Ariki. Whakamoemiti ki te Atua.

WAIATA WHAKAUTU 79 / 80

WZ: Ko te māra wāina a te Ariki te whare o Iharaira.

[The vineyard of the Lord is the House of Israel.]

We were like a grapevine you brought out of Egypt. You chased out other nations and planted us here. Its branches stretched to the sea; its new growth reached to the river. WZ: Our Lord, why have you torn down the wall from around the vineyard? You let everyone who walks by pick the grapes. Now the vine is gobbled down by pigs from the forest and other wild animals. WZ: Ko te māra wāina a te Ariki God All-Powerful, please do something! Look down from heaven and see what's happening to this vine. With your own hands you planted its roots, and you raised it as your very own. WZ: Ko te māra wāina a te

We will never turn away. Put new life into us and we will worship you. LORD God All-Powerful, make us strong again! Smile on us and save us. WZ: Ko te māra wāina a te

Then he rented out his vineyard and left the country. When it was harvest time, the owner sent some servants to get his share of the grapes. But the renters grabbed those servants. They beat one, killed one, and stoned one of them to death. He then sent more servants than he did the first time. But the renters treated them in the same way. Finally, the owner sent his own son to the renters, because he thought they would respect him. But when they saw the man's son, they said, "Someday he will own the vineyard. Let's kill him! Then we can have it all for ourselves." So they grabbed him, threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. Jesus asked: When the owner of that vineyard comes what do you suppose he will do to those renters? The chief priests and leaders answered, "He will kill them in some horrible way. Then he will rent out his vineyard to people who will give him a share of grapes at harvest time." The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.
