HOATU TE WHAKAPONO KI ĀU MOKOPUNA

Ka haere te tāima. Time goes on and we grow into the role of Kuia and Kaumātua. We find ourselves trying to pass on the faith to our children's children. Modern times mean that lots of things have changed. But don't despair! Don't retreat into the past. Helps are available. How can you make Jesus 'cool' for your mokopuna? This Easter the Bible Society is giving away 100,000 copies of The Super Cool Story of Jesus. This is an opportunity to get the story of Jesus into the hands of children. This is a child-friendly book. It tells the story of Jesus' life, including the Easter events, in playful, rhyming language with fun pictures. To order your copy go to www.bible.society.org.nz/super\_cool. The book is available now both free to individuals or in bulk orders to churches for their Easter activities

5 YEARS - ANNIVERSARY

On Tuesday our Mass at Te Unga Waka was dedicated to Pāpā Werahiko - Pope Francis.

It was the 5th anniversary of his election as Pope, and time to reflect on this remarkable Pope. "As a pastor, I find that Pope Francis has affected so many people and not just Catholics. He is truly a global leader, the conscience of the world. In an interview, Helen Clarke, former NZ Prime Minister and now a leading light at the United Nations, acknowledged how he had affected her. "I look around the world at who is providing a sense of inspiration and hope at the moment. It's the Pope. I am not a Catholic, but I recognize in this man tremendous goodness. A voice of sanity in a troubled world, often speaking what we all feel but could not express as eloquently." Our Cardinal Dew says, "Regularly reading the words of Pope Francis gives me hope and encouragement, because he understands the messiness of our lives. He often speaks strongly and in a very direct (and often humorous) way which challenges us to look at ourselves and how we act. ... He always conveys hope."

ASH WEDNESDAY AT THE CATHEDRAL

How Auntie Whizzy and Buck would have enjoyed the ceremony at the Cathedral at the beginning of Lent! Liza Tipene and her husband Buck were an inspiration to hundreds of us who came from Hokianga to bring their big family to live in the city, mainly in the 1950s and 60s. It was great to see the son of her son Michael, her mokopuna, Pā Peter Tipene preside over the ceremony of Ash Wednesday as Dean of the Cathedral. Wonderful also to see the Anglican Bishop Ross Bay sharing the ceremony with us and preaching a very inspirational message.

TUHITUHI TAPU TUATAHI

Heremia Poropiti Ūpoko 31<sup>31-34</sup>

The LORD said: The time will surely come when I will make a new arrangement with the people of Israel and Judah. It will be different from the agreement I made with their ancestors when I led them out of Egypt. Although I was their God they broke that agreement. Here is the new agreement that I, the LORD, will make with the people of Israel. “I will write my laws on their hearts and minds. I will be their God and they will be my people. No longer will they have to teach one another to obey me. I, the LORD, promise that all of them will obey me, ordinary people and rulers alike. I will forgive their sins and forget the evil things they have done.”

Ko te kupu a te Ariki.

Whakamoemiti ki te Atua.

WAIATA WHAKAUTU 50 / 51

Wā: Hangā, e te Atua, he ngākau mā
ki roto ki ahau.

[A pure heart create for me O God.]

You are kind, O God, please have pity on me. You are always merciful! Please wipe away my sins.

Wā: Hangā, e te Atua, he ngākau mā
ki roto ki ahau.

Create pure thoughts in me and make me faithful again. Don't chase me away from you or take your Holy Spirit away from me.

Wā: Hangā, e te Atua, he ngākau mā
ki roto ki ahau.

Make me as happy as you did when you saved me; make me want to obey! I will teach sinners your Law, and they will return to you. Wā:

Hangā, e te Atua, he ngākau mā
ki roto ki ahau.

TUHITUHI TAPU TUARUA

Reta ki ngā Hīperu Ūpoko 5<sup>7-9</sup>

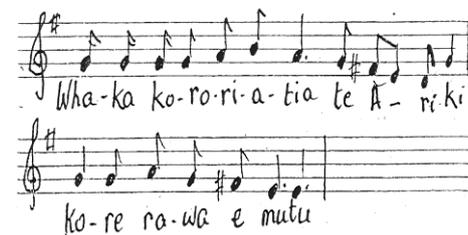

While Jesus was on earth, he begged God with loud crying and tears to save him. He truly worshipped God, and God listened to his prayers.

Jesus is God's own Son, but he still had to suffer before he could learn what it really means to obey God.

Suffering made Jesus perfect, and now he can save forever all who obey him.

Ko te kupu a te Ariki.

Whakamoemiti ki te Atua

Ko koe te Kupu a te Atua! Ki te mea tētahi ko ia hei kaimahi māku, me aru ia i ahau.

RONGO PAI

Hoane Ūpoko 12<sup>20-30</sup>

Nō ngā tauwiwi ētahi o te hunga i haere ake ki te koropiko i te rā haringa. Ā, haere mai ēnei ki a Whiripo nō Petahaira o Karirea, ā, ka whakamātau kōrero ki ā ia, ka mea, “E kara, e pīrangi ana mātou kia kite i a Hēhu.” Haere ana a Whiripo, kōrero ana ki a Aterea. Nā Aterea anō rāua ko Whiripo i kōrero ki a Hēhu. Ā, ka kī a Hēhu ki a rāua, ka mea, “Kua tae mai te hāora e whakakorōriatia ai te Tama a te tangata. He pono, he pono tāku ka mea atu nei ki a koutou: Ki te kore te pata wīti e ngahoro ki te whenua, ā, e mate, ka kotahi tonu ia. Tēnā, ki te mate, he maha āna hua e hua ai. Ko ia e aroha ana ki tōna ora, ka ngaro i ā ia, ā, ko te tangata e kino ana ki tōna ora i tēnei ao, ka mau ki ā ia te ora āke, āke. Ki te mahi tētahi ki a au, me aru ia i a au: ā, te wāhi i noho ai ahau, ko reira anō taku kaimahi. Ki te mahi tētahi ki a au, e whakahōnoretia e tōku Matua. Kei te pōuri tōku wairua i tēnei wāhi ā, kia pēhea taku kupu? E Pā, whakaorangia mai ahau i tēnei hāora: otirā, ko te mea tēnei i tae mai ai ahau ki tēnei hāora. E Pā, whakakorōriatia tōu ingoa.” Na, ka puta he reo i te rangi: “Kua whakakorōriatia e ahau, ā, e whakakorōriatia anō.” Na, ka mea te mano e tū ana i reira, ā, i rongo: “He whatitiri!” Ko ētahi i mea: “Kua kōrero tētahi āhere ki ā ia.” Ka oho a Hēhu ka mea, “Ehara i te mea he whakaaro ki ahau i puta mai ai tēnei reo, ēngari he whakaaro ki a koutou. Ko āiane te whakawā mō te ao; ko āiane pangā ai te rangatira o tēnei ao ki waho. Kia oti ahau te whakairi ake i runga i te whenua, ka kūmea e ahau ngā mea katoa ki ahau.” I pēnei ai ia hei whakaatu i te āhua o te mate e mate ai ia.

Ko te Rongo Pai a te Ariki.

Kia whakanuia rā koe e te Ariki e Hēhu Karaiti.

GOSPEL John Ch. 12<sup>20-30</sup>

Some Greeks had gone to Jerusalem to worship during Passover. Philip from Bethsaida in Galilee was there too. So they went to him and said, “Sir, we would like to meet Jesus.” Philip told Andrew. Then the two of them went to Jesus and told him. Jesus said, “The time has come for the Son of Man to be given his glory. I tell you for certain that a grain of wheat that falls on the ground will never be more than one grain unless it dies. But if it dies, it will produce lots of wheat. If you love your life, you will lose it. If you give it up in this world, you will be given eternal life. If you serve me, you must go with me. My servants will be with me wherever I am. If you serve me my Father will honour you. Now, I am deeply troubled, and I don't know what to say. But I must not ask my Father to keep me from this time of suffering. In fact, I came into the world to suffer. So Father, bring glory to yourself.” A voice from heaven then said: “I have already brought glory to myself, and I will do it again.” When the crowd heard the voice, some of them thought it was thunder. Others thought an angel had spoken to Jesus. Then Jesus told the crowd, “That voice spoke to help you, not me. This world's people are now being judged, and the ruler of this world is being already thrown out. If I am lifted up above the earth, I will make everyone want to come to me.” Jesus was talking about the way he would be put to death.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

5th Sunday of Lent, Year B*Jeremiah 31. 31-*34 Hebrews 5. 7-9 John
12. 20-33

Tēnā koutou e te whānau me ngā manuhiri. Haere mai. Peka mai ki tēnei wāhi rangimārie. Come aside from the busy world into the peaceful house of God.

Look at the first reading from Jeremiah.

For nearly seventy-five years after the death of the Prophet Isaiah, there was no great prophet to succeed him. The wicked King Manasseh reigned for almost fifty years and during his reign idol-worship was established more firmly than ever and the morals of people sank to their lowest ebb. Anybody who dared to raise his voice in protest or warning, was either silenced or brutally murdered. Under the reign of Manasseh's successor things took a turn for the better and the second golden age of Hebrew prophecy began.

It is the age of Jeremiah and Zephania, Nahum and Habakkuk, Ezekiel and Daniel. The greatest of these, and at the same time most Christ-like of all the prophets, was Jeremiah from whom the First Reading today is taken.

Our reading for today has been called "Jeremiah's Spiritual Testament". Jeremiah says that the Israelites had broken the covenant God made with them at Mount Sinai and Jeremiah says of God "I had to show myself their master, says the Lord". In other words: God was no longer their loving father, but now has become their master; the people no longer were his children, but now were his slaves without an inheritance.

But the Jeremiah goes on to say, "The days are coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah". Jeremiah is telling the people that God never turns his back on people, however much they had done wrong. 'A new covenant will be made in time' is Jeremiah's message.

Jesus came and established that new covenant as we proclaim at Consecration in the Mass, "This is the cup of my blood, the blood of the new and eternal covenant".

Today's Gospel starts with "among those who went up to worship at the festival were some Greeks. They came to Philip and said to him 'Sir, we wish to see Jesus'. Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went to see Jesus". Both Philip and Andrew have Greek names. ('Philip' means 'lover of horses' and Andrew means 'manly') It looks like it that Philip and Andrew understood some Greek. It would be natural for the Greeks to seek out someone who would understand their culture and language. It may be that Philip and Andrew consulted with each other because there is no precedent for Jesus dealing with Gentiles. There is no indication that the Gentiles were with them when they approached Jesus but it would make these Gentiles the first fruits of the spread of the Christian faith in the Greek speaking world.

What happened to that simple request by the Greeks, "Sir, we would like to see Jesus"? The answer reminds us once more that the gospels are more theology than biography. The answer is given by those who wrote this gospel and basically they are saying, "It is more important that you see what Jesus is all about".

To SEE Jesus is to enter totally into his way of thinking, to understand WHY he had to suffer and die and rise again. Like the grain of wheat, Jesus had to let go of everything, including his own life, in order to bring life to himself and many others. If we cannot see and accept this as the core of Jesus' life, we have not really seen him and never will see him in the true sense.

"Unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains a single grain, but if it dies, it bears much fruit" Jesus compares his life and the lives of his followers to a grain of wheat. The image of the grain of wheat, its death and its fruitfulness, is often paralleled with bodily death and resurrection.

Death to selfishness -
That is what we try to do all the time - but it's mighty difficult.
